

Mels Ambardaryan

Front-End Developer

Since in 2021 have been doing Front and Developer programmes. I have learned at DaniSoft academia as a web developer. Then I studied at Magical of company. Now I am learning at Samvel Hayrapetyan's JavaScript TypeScript. I like programming very much. My work you can see. <https://github.com/MelsAmbardaryan>. Right now I try to improve my English language's skills.
